Welcome

This Journey of a Lifetime has been curated by John Sax, owner of Treetops Lodge & Estate and Kinloch Manor & Villas as well as a native New Zealander of great vision and deep commitment to the causes he holds close to his heart.

His award-winning luxury lodges embody his passion for preserving New Zealand's spectacular native forest, adventure, sustainability, his love for the best in architecture, partly inspired by the great American lodge tradition, and his pride in, and great concern for, the welfare of his country and people in which he invests heavily. John is keen that his international guests experience the rich beauty of New Zealand from pure native mountain and lake environments, to superb sporting and leisure opportunities, to estate provided gourmet dining in the finest settings. His standards demand the best and the results speak for themselves.

This Journey of a Lifetime, via some of New Zealand's most awarded lodges, private helicopter and car transfers, combines some of the world's most uninhabited wilderness forest adventure trails, pristine lakes, live volcanoes, glaciers, secluded beaches and fiords to provide the most rewarding and unique adventure experience New Zealand has to offer.

We invite you to experience our beautiful country – New Zealand.

Journey of a Lifetime

Here is the irresistible answer for discerning travellers who want to enjoy exclusive experiences only offered in this itinerary, with the very best of North and South Island luxury adventure in New Zealand.

The nine-night North and South Island New Zealand itinerary is available all year round, with incredible added value only available to those who choose this experience PLUS your choice of a great range of add-ons for those with more time to spend.

PRIVATE TRANSFER TO TREETOPS LODGE & ESTATE | 3 NIGHT STAY

Arrive at 'World Travel Awards, Best in Sustainability and Luxury Adventure' winner, Treetops Lodge & Estate. Your first three nights nestle into an upgraded private villa amongst an 800-year old native forest, close to Rotorua; the heartland of Māori heritage and geothermal activity.

Highlights include a private helicopter flight over New Zealand's volcanic fault line. 4WD estate safari, wild food cooking class, wilderness spa with Māori therapies, 35 kms of wilderness trails to explore and for the passionate golfer you are welcome to play at the only Jack Nicklaus Signature Course in New Zealand at the nearby Kinloch Club, and or Wairakei Golf Course.

PRIVATE TRANSFER TO KINLOCH MANOR & VILLAS | 3 NIGHT STAY

Your next destination is the multi-award-winning Kinloch Manor & Villas, home to New Zealand's only Jack Nicklaus Signature Golf Course. Spectacularly positioned above iconic Lake Taupō, the North Island's premier golf and adventure destination, your next 3 nights are enjoyed in an upgraded private villa with log-burning fireplace and floor to ceiling views over Lake Taupō.

Highlights include golf for two at The Kinloch Club golf course, helicopter flights to Hawkes Bay to visit iconic wineries and or play golf at Cape Kidnappers, and a rejuvenating spa with New Zealand Manuka honey treatments.

FLIGHTS TO QUEENSTOWN AND PRIVATE TRANSFER TO YOUR CHOICE OF LODGE | 3 NIGHT STAY

Next is a three-night stay in Queenstown, the adventure capital of the world, set amongst the glacier lakes and alpine mountains of New Zealand's South Island and within close reach of the Central Otago wine region. Choose from a range of 5-star properties for your final 3 nights.

Highlights include an enviable choice of prestige alpine accommodation, private helicopter flights to Milford Sound with glacier viewing, private winery visits to meet leading New Zealand winemakers or golf for two at one of Queenstown's world-class golf courses, such as Jacks Point and or Millbrook.

4WD Safari

DAY ONE

Arrive in Auckland greeted by your concierge where your adventure begins.

A private helicopter whisks you from Auckland Airport to Treetops Lodge & Estate for a wilderness experience, nestled in a private eco-park of 2500 acres, New Zealand's most awarded lodge for its sustainability practices and suited to those who love getting out into the outdoors – you will be upgraded to a forest or valley view villa, inclusive of pre-dinner drinks and canapés, five-course 'Estate to Plate' dinner accompanied by a selection of our New Zealand cellar wines, and a full hearty breakfast each day.

DAY TWO

Awake with full lodge breakfast, then depart from the Treetops Helipad for a private helicopter geothermal faultline adventure, with a flight path that includes stopping off at a remote secluded beach for a casual morning tea, afternoon tea at a remote exclusive lake to arrive back to Treetops Lodge for a private fireside dinner for two at the lodge. Or begin your New Zealand adventure with New Zealand's most challenging golf course; the nearby Jack Nicklaus Signature Golf Course at Kinloch- this is Jack at his best!

DAY THREE

Awake at Treetops Lodge to a hearty breakfast and the perfect chillout day, explore 35 miles on estate of fabulous hiking and adventure trails, taking in waterfalls, rivers and lakes. Try your hand at fly fishing or clay pigeon shooting, or spend a day in our dedicated on-site Wilderness Spa that specialises in Māori traditional therapies. In the afternoon join our estate manager for a 4WD safari of the estate or Wild Food Cooking Class with our head chef and discover the 100% organic and pesticide-free dining philosophy of this lodge. Join other guests for pre-dinner drinks and dinner at the lodge.
